We are a 501c3 non-profit summer collegiate baseball organization. (Our team is made up of college players.)

- Our home games will be played in Joplin at Joe Becker Stadium.
- 2019 attendance ranged from 700 – 2,000 fans per game
- Admission will be $5.00 for adults, Children under 12 are free.
- Season passes will be available for $50.00, which includes all regular season games and play-off games.

The purpose of the "Joplin Outlaws" Collegiate Baseball Club, a member of the MINK League, is to develop and promote the game of baseball by offering quality playing opportunities and player development, by playing competitive with other top baseball players. We will accomplish this by paying the price in commitment, dedication, effort and sportsmanship; and by having pride in self, team and the community. We will respect the community, the team and the organization and will strive to promote and enhance the game of baseball in our community!
